In Loving Remembrance.

The death of Mrs. I. S. Tabor shocked and grieved the whole community be-yond expression. She underwent a most serious operation at Fanny Allen hospital on Saturday, Feb. 16. All reports were hopeful until Wednesday evening, when alarming messages arrived. Owing to the irregular railway service, Mr. Tabor did not reach her bedside until several hours after she had passed away at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, Feb. 21. Although a resident of Calais but eight ears, her noble qualities of character, kind deeds and ready sympathy in all trouble, had made her loved and honored by all, both old and young.

Ina Belle Foster was born April, 1864, in Calais, at the Foster homestead where Col. H. S. Foster now resides. Later the family went to Cabot, where she grew to womanhood. Being a great lover of music, she studied in Brook lyn, N. Y., in the conservatory of her un-cle, George W. Foster. On Dec. 25, 1887. she married Herman Robers of Cabot, a highly esteemed young man of that time, they residing on the Rogers home farm until his death, Jan. 15, 1898.

During this time she was a worthy member of the Order of Eastern Star filling many prominent offices of trust yancy Dairy Butter, per 1h.
